From the Pen of the Pastor

I'm so glad you came to celebrate Resurrection Weekend with us! I hope you have experienced God speaking to you not only through special segments of worship, but, more importantly, throughout the entire worship experience. We have planned and prayed over this worship service, as we do over our standard services, so as to create the optimal conditions for you to experience the presence and power of God. We always want you to leave Emmanuel thinking about how to apply what you heard God say through this service to your everyday life, personal and professional.

Equally important, we hope you will rediscover the value of being in the Christian community. There are some things God will never do in our lives until we find reliable, truthful, supportive relationships.

Through Emmanuel, I strongly believe Christ provides an excellent opportunity for you to (re-)connect with and grow through Christian community. The question, however, is not whether or not God offers, but rather "What's your answer?"

Because we know you are busy working long hours and therefore have little free time, we encourage you to sample the resources Christ makes available through Emmanuel. We welcome you to drop in or tune-in (www.ebc-ny.org) to discover a broad-range of weekly, as well as special, events which may meet your needs and interests. Before the end of April, you can:

- Enjoy free food and health tips @ 2009 COOK-OFF: Sat., April 25, @ 12pm;
- Grade EBC on how well we have kept our promises to the church and the community on 128th CHURCH ANNIVERSARY: Sat., April 25 @ 5:30pm through Sun., April 26 @ 8am, 10am, & 12pm; and/or
- Hear how you can hold on to your deceased loved ones yet still move on with the business of living through four (4) weekly sessions of HEALING OUR HEARTS beginning on Mon., April 25, @7:30pm.

While there are so many other things I'd like to share with you, I will temporarily resist the temptation. Besides, you have other things you must do. Still, know that we do not take your presence on today for granted and you can take our continued prayers for your salvation and success as a given.

May God continue to bless you, and through you, many others!

Rev. Anthony L. Trufant, Senior Pastor
